Mr James Nielsen, Chairman
Board of Prison Terms
428 G. St. 6th floor
Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Mr Nielsen & Board Members

This letter concerns the upcoming parole hearing for P. J. Lopez C-73842.

P. J. shot a man who attacked him in his room. He was defending himself. What kind of justice is this that keeps a man in prison for 13 years for defending himself. Others have committed murders and gone free.

P. J. has never been in trouble before this trouble with this man, he reported himself and never asked anyone for help. He attended church and tried to be an upstanding citizen.

He cannot adjust to being in prison for murder when he just defended himself.

Please set him free to get on with his life and his music.

Sincerely

Helen Schultz
