To Whom It May Concern:

Please include this letter as a document regarding P. F. Lazor's character, for your reference concerning this young man.

P. F. Lazor is my nephew, my brother's son, so I have known him all his life. As a child, a growing young man, and adult, he has always been a peace-loving person. I have no reason to doubt his ethical, moral and peace-loving standards of conduct. He would pursue peace, not war, and would help others less fortunate than he on his way through life. On his visits to our home, he has always conducted himself in a considerate manner, making him a welcome guest in our home. I know him to be sensitive and intelligent, an individual who is truly an asset to his community and society in general.

I have every reason to support P. F. and stand behind him 100 percent. What the courts have allowed P.F. to suffer is a tragedy. Any of us, whether judge, jury, attorney, district attorney or private citizen, would have done exactly as P. F. did, given the exact circumstances.

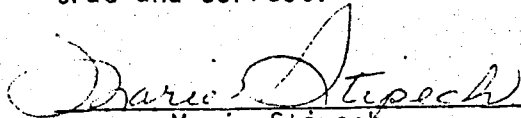

My prayer is that P. F.'s case will be reconsidered within the constraints of the legal system and that justice will be served by allowing him his freedom once the truth of his case is known. We hope that the evidence, when presented unaltered, will be considered justly and fairly in our judicial system.

P. F.'s imprisonment is a great loss to all who know him, and much more importantly, an extreme injustice in view of the truth.

Sincerely,

Marie Stipech

I solemnly swear under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
