To Whom it may concern;

I have known PF Lazor since 1977, at which time we worked together at Valley Realty now known as Caldwell Banker. Very soon after he came to the office, I took a liking to him because of his sincere interest in all life; displayed by his dedication to the "Hunger Project" to end world starvation, also his integrative manners in dealing with all situations I've known him in.

In 1978, PF needed a temporary place to stay. I offered him a room. It worked out well; I being divorced and left with 2 boys to raise on my own. PF Lazor has been the only "father figure" my boys have known since then. His patience and extremely high tolerance level with 2 kids in need of guidance and discipline has been vital to the survival of my little family. So he has always been welcome in my home to stay as long as he wanted.

I feel a deep sense of loss right now. My sons and I need and want him back.

Somewhere there has to be a lack of communication in dealing with this terrible occurrence. PF murder? NO way! He couldn't and wouldn't unless his life or the life of another was under immediate threat.

Sincerely
