INSTRUCTION: The Financial Aid Office will rely heavily on the estimate of this student's abilities as given below. Specifically, information pertaining to the candidate's scholastic ability and attainment, character, and financial need receive consideration in selection of award winners. The student under no circumstances is to see this evaluation. All information will be treated as being highly confidential.

Since Mr. LAZAR has been with me, I have observed the following:

He is a very patient and peace full man. He has outstanding characteristics as a leader and organizer. He is sober and very reliable and understanding of other peoples wants and needs.

I feel some one with these qualities is a good candidate for financial assistance in whatever he endeavors.
