

To whom it may concern

I've known P.F. Lazor since Nov. 1979, playing lead guitar in the "Buddy Holly Jr. Show". My name is TONY LOURENCO, I am the manager of IVAR H. JOHNSON Music Co. I have been working there for 5 years, managing for 3 years.

I was very shocked at hearing the news of what happened to P.F., thinking that he must have been confronted with a life-or-death situation.

The 3 years that the band played quite regularly, I have never seen or heard of P.F. acting or treating anyone in a violent manner. P.F. was always a good businessman, always taking care of all the gigs. He would book them, write out contracts and make sure we all got paid. He was one to always keep his cool.

Sincerely

Tony Lourenco
