

AS THE PROPHETS HAVE SPOKEN

4-10-15 (1)
(#30)

1. As the prophets have spoken
not one word has been broken,
telling centuries in advance
of things today.
No one can run from this certainty
as pronounced, it's something that had to be;
"prepare to meet your maker"
— as they say.

2. As the prophets have spoken
our world's come apart and's broken.
But many can't see
the writing on the wall.
As the climax approaches near the heart of the scoffer coaches fear
from the sidelines, redlined
and still blind to it all.

BRIDGE: "We're in the end of time,"
the wise and the courageous say,
"the system has run out of time today."
Scorned and mocked in a world that's rocked where common sense everywhere is blocked
the just and righteous knocked — out of the way.

3. As the prophets have said it
most of the world still doesn't get it !
Some will live to regret it
— some won't know.
As the curtain closes at the ending scenes
many still so dazed don't know what it means,
until they announce again,
it's the end of the show.

[INSTRUMENTAL, OF VERSE SECTION, TO FADE OUT]

[END]

Written: April 10, 2015 (1) [R, G]