

BY THEIR FRUITS (WE KNOW THEM)

5-5-92
(#18)

1. Remember from the start
He promised you and me
The fruits we bear reflect the heart of every living tree.

REFRAIN 1: By their fruits we will know them
Souls have seeds and our deeds sow them Over time they'll turn into whatever in our hearts is true.
By their fruits you will know them
Whether or not they want to show them
The value dealt by me and you is the measure we'll receive by too.

2. Bad seeds grow in the garden with forbidden fruit at hand.
All choose their blossoming of heart
by planting in rich soil or sand.

REFRAIN 2: By our fruits we'll all be known as all that's hidden waxes shown;
all we've planted fills our field,
the treasures of our heart , our yield.
By our fruits we will be known,
we can't hide the seeds we've sown.
In the long run all will reap the deepest deeds and desires we keep.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

BRIDGE: Don't you know, know the meaning of this writing on the wall ?
Read the signs, discern, for all must learn no one can break this law.
You can tell whose heart is spent in praise:
in their garden
see what kind of fruit they raise.

3. Some things we're not to judge and yet we must discern Observe the fruit to know the truth, the lessons are there to learn.

[REPEAT REFRAIN 1]
[MODULATE UP]

4. Blessings come from praising,
the two are intertwined.
One is the fruit, the other its seed, through planted in the law He designed.

[REPEAT REFRAIN 2,
REVERSE ORDER OF LAST 4 & FIRST 4 LINES]

[END]

Written: January 27
May 5, 1992.