

I LOVE YOU

c. 1979

1. I love you in the morning when I'm waking
I love you in the evening when the day is through.
Though the times are filled with trials
and the hours go on for miles
my heart is filled with smiles — 'cause I love you.
2. I love you when the sun is on the risin'
I love you in the midday when the sky is blazin' blue.
And whatever dreams forsake me
as the changes tend to break me —
No matter where they take me — I love you ...
And whenever you can't see whatever's happening to me,
most importantly — just know that I love you.

BRIDGE I : You, you, you, how I love the who you are,
oh, I love you, you, you, you,
not just the things you do — Oh! I love you.

3. I love you in the spring when life is born again
I love you like the flowers love the mornin' dew.
No matter where we go, people look at us and know
'cause I can't help but let it show — how I love you.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

4. I love you in the autumn when the colors run
I love you with a power found by very few.
Couldn't be a greater pleasure than to give you every treasure
There's just no measuring — my love for you . . .
Couldn't be a better reason than to love you through every season
besides for pleasin' you — 'cause I love you.

BRIDGE II: You, you, you, oh, I love the who you are,
oh, I love you, you, you more than anything else by far, how I love you !

[END]

Written: c. 1979