

S/HE PRAYS WITH PRAISE

4-5-92

- 1. In your world of suffering, did you think that prayer meant nothing?
In truth, prayer is the chainlink to creation.
Without prayer we have no anchor Without prayer we have no rudder Without prayer we have no guide to help in any situation.
- 2. You say you sometimes pray still your troubles seem to stay But did you ever praise the Father when you prayed before?
Praise is where to mount our anchor Praise is how to steer our rudder Praise unlocks the blocks and channels first, and once we've strayed from shore.

BRIDGE: You look other peoples' lives and see them doing just fine,
can't figure why it looks so easy,
you do such hard time.
Can't figure out for the life of you while your own life slips by You wonder why their life works out so well
— I'll tell you why:

REFRAIN: He prays with praise through his nights and his days
This lights our inner lamp so the darkness doesn't faze us.
Let's praise when we pray
in our thoughts and in our say
As we pray with praise we find that in like-kind, it repays us.

She prays with praise
even more so when faith frays.
The Spirit of truth and comfort in us prayer of this kind raises.
Let's praise when we pray
we should always pray this way
As we pray with praise we find
that in like-kind, it repays us.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

3. There's a realm of harmony where mansion rooms there are many But passages to there are straight and narrow ways.
If you're praying for an answer
If you're praying for solutions
If you're praying for doors to open Open first yourself – to praise.
4. There is real power in prayer
To seek and find it, all too rare
But if you seek that passage through the worldly maze:
Start praising for the answers
Praise some more to find solutions
Don't stop praising for doors opening This key unloads them always –

[REPEAT REFRAIN, AND]:

So let's praise when we pray
in our thoughts and in our say
When we pray with praise
the darkness doesn't faze us.
So let's praise when we pray
we should always pray this way
As we pray with praise, we find
that in like-kind it repays us.
