

YOUNG-GUNS-COUNTRY-BOYS

1-14-16
(#4)

1. Truth is, we don't care much for bars
and we'd rather drive pickups than fancy cars.
But don't think for a second we'd give up our guitars
'cause we all think we're gonna be country music stars.

[INSTRUMENTAL TURNAROUND]

Oh, but don't misjudge me, don't get me wrong;
we're cowboy-tough and ox-like strong.
We'd just as soon rodeo as write a hit song.
We're down-to-earth corny, yea we get a little horny — * †
we're young-guns-fun-lovin'-country-boys.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

[REPEAT HOOK]

2. We never overstay or get in-your-face-loud;
we do it our way and don't follow the crowd.
We honor God with hats off and heads bowed, pushin' limits usually beyond what's allowed —

[REPEAT HOOK]

3. From age two we're raised up on guitar and fiddle;
now and then we'll show off (just a little).
To our women we're anything but non-committal.
Heart's soft, body's hard, and soul is right in the middle —

[REPEAT HOOK]

[INSTRUMENTAL]

4. We predict the weather by the color of the sky;
been practicin' common sense since we was knee-high.
When they say it can't be done, that's when we give our best try;
and leave our legacy in lots and lots of children when we die —
We're down-to-earth corny and, yea, we get horny,
we're young-guns-fun-lovin'-country-boys.

[REPEAT HOOK OVER AND OVER, MIXED WITH INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC, TO FADEOUT]

[END]
